

Description

The software is mainly used for sign-in scenarios at nurse stations, supporting patients to sign in for triage using a wall-mounted sign-in machine.

Feature

- * Support multiple registration modes such as scanning codes, medical cards, medical insurance cards, and ID cards.
- * Support queue information viewing function, patients can check their own queue information through the software after registration.